Herbalife Is The Official Match Day Partner Of Western Sydney Wanderers FC Game Against Melbourne Victory

Sydney, Australia, 1 December 2015 — Herbalife (NYSE: HLF) has announced it is the official Match Day Partner of the Western Sydney Wanderers FC game against Melbourne Victory at Pirtek Stadium on Saturday 12 December. As official Nutrition Partner of Western Sydney Wanderers FC for the 2015/2016 A-League season, Herbalife hosts programs and activities in conjunction with the club, as well as supports the team's sports nutrition regime.

Rod Taylor, General Manager, Herbalife Australia and New Zealand, says, "As Nutrition Partner of the Western Sydney Wanderers, Herbalife continues to demonstrate its commitment to health and nutrition advocacy in Australia and New Zealand. Herbalife products are developed for the benefit of both professional athletes and those who choose to lead an active life in any way. We are thrilled to continue supporting the team for the second year running and wish them all the best for the game on the 12th December."

John Tsatsimas, CEO, Western Sydney Wanderers FC, says he is pleased to continue the partnership with Herbalife. "Like Herbalife, our club promotes a healthy and active lifestyle. Herbalife continuously fuels our players to support them throughout their training regimes so they can gain the advantage to rise to the top of the Hyundai A-League. These products helped us become 2014 Champions of Asia and will continue to empower us to take on any challenges throughout this season."

Western Sydney Wanderers striker Brendon Santalab has been consuming products from the Herbalife Nutrition range for the past two years. "Herbalife assists us with the nutrition we need to perform at our best throughout each game. My favourite Herbalife product is the Vanilla Almond Protein Bar. It's a nice snack for the day and I'm constantly asking our team's Strength and Conditioning Coach for one," he said.

Herbalife is a substantial player in the sports nutrition market, bringing their performance nutrition range Herbalife 24, endorsed by athletes such as Cristiano Ronaldo, to Australia. Ronaldo is among over 190 athletes, teams and sporting events that Herbalife sponsors around the world, reflecting their commitment to a healthy, active life supported by good nutrition. Many of Herbalife's sponsored athletes, including Western Sydney Wanderers FC, consume Herbalife products before, during and after training and games, for a range of benefits that can support athletic performance, including healthy meal replacement, support for endurance exercise, increased energy, hydration and support for muscle recovery. With a range of protein-based and hydration products, Herbalife is well-positioned to play a significant role in providing credible sports nutrition solutions across Australia and beyond.
